

 Electricity free: Can you have a day at home where you turn off non-essential electricity items and do something else instead? What did you do? Take photos!	 Reduce Pollution: Can you walk, scooter or cycle to school? Can you extend this distance? Is there a journey you usually take by car that you could walk, scooter or cycle to instead?	 Spend more time outdoors: Can you go on a walk find out how many bins there are on your route? Do you think this is enough? Is there any evidence that there needs to be more? Write a letter, record a video or prepare a presentation explaining what you think.	 Grow something new: Can you reduce the carbon footprint of a food item or a plant? Can you grow the plant yourself? What helps the plant to grow?
 Energy Free cooking: Can you find a recipe that doesn't need to be cooked? Sandwiches, mousse etc. How does it taste?	 Volunteer to be green: Can you volunteer to be the eco champion at home? Can you work on becoming more energy efficient, i.e. turning off lights when they are not being used, turning the TV and other appliances off of standby, encourage others at home to do the same?	 Get out!! Go outdoors and play a game outside. Develop your own game to play by yourself or with someone else. What are the rules? How do you play? What do you like about your game?	 An environmentalist: Research someone who has raised awareness of climate change. Can you prepare a presentation about them?
 Something different: Can you reduce the amount of food waste in your home? Can you help to meal plan for the week? Can you help with cooking food?	 Single use plastic: Can you commit to reducing the amount of single use plastic you use? How might you do this? What have you used instead?	 Reduce landfill: Volunteer to help with the recycling at home. What can be recycled? What has to go into the landfill bin? How can you help to reduce the amount of waste in the landfill bin?	 What is your favourite board game? Encourage your family to play a board game with you. Which games did you enjoy? Which games did you not like? Why? Take photos of you playing the game.